Subject: Hello!

Just a note to see how things stand. Again, I apologize for "bugging" you about your kind offer to speak with us. If you have not retained an attorney, I can talk with you any time, at any location you designate. If you are represented by a lawyer, I'll call him or her if you'll just give me the name and location of his/her law office (city or town only). Thanks again,
Don
